Adult Studio - Origami Bowls

Thursday, January 9 & 23, 5:15 p.m. - $15/$13.50 for Friends

In this workshop, use simple clay slabs and basic origami folding to create stunning bowls and platters. Experiment with texture and sculptural additions for a truly unique piece. In the first class on January 9th, we will build the bowl/platter, and glaze them in the second class on January 23rd.

Register by January 8.

Adult Studio - Red Barn Studio: Winter Cardinal

Sunday, January 12, 1:30 - 3:00 p.m. - $15/$13.50 for Friends

Artist Vada Baker leads this class where participants use watercolors in contrasting colors to bring to life a bright red cardinal against a winter backdrop. All supplies included. No experience necessary.

Register by January 10.

Artist Workshop for Kids with Miss Julie - Chinese New Year

Saturday, January 25, 1:30 - 2:30 p.m. - (Ages 7-14) Free admission

According to the Chinese Zodiac, the Year of the Snake begins January 29, 2025. The dates of the Chinese Lunar New Year varies every year, but falls on a day in either January or February, unlike the Gregorian Calendar, where New Year's Eve is always December 31st. Join Miss Julie to learn more about the 12 animal signs of the Chinese Zodiac and create a snake craft to celebrate the beginning of the Year of the Snake. Register by January 24.

Free Take & Makes - Cork Crafts

Available January 31 - February 8

Visit the Muscatine Art Center during open hours to pick up a Take & Make bag with simple supplies to create fun and creative crafts using corks! These bags are free while supplies last.
